1. December 9, 2014 Regular Assembly Meeting 6:00 PM Soldotna

R. ASSEMBLY COMMENTS

Assembly Member Johnson thanked Central Emergency Services for setting up lights at Kasilof Fire Station on election day. He stated he was working on a few up coming legislative items regarding utility special assessment districts and local option zoning, as well as South Kenai Peninsula Hospital Service Area and Central Kenai Peninsula Hospital Service Area boundaries. Mr. Johnson wished everyone a happy Thanksgiving.

Assembly Member Cooper complimented the Finance Department for their excellent work on the audit. She thanked Margaret Martin for her thirty-one years of service to the borough. Ms. Cooper congratulated the Homer City Clerk, Jo Johnson, for her award of Clerk of the Year. She wished everyone a happy Thanksgiving.

Assembly Member Haggerty wished everyone a happy Thanksgiving.

Assembly Member Welles wished everyone a happy Thanksgiving.

Assembly Member Gilman stated he attended the All State Choir in Anchorage and that there were over 500 students participating. He stated this was a great example of over 500 students that chose to do "the right thing" and participate in their schools music program. Mr. Gilman stated he had the opportunity to be a part of the transition team for Governor Walker for oil and gas and shared the information he had learned.

Assembly Member Ogle stated that Nikiski was the industrial and energy heartland of the borough. He congratulated Rachel Parra and her staff for having such a great facility in Nikiski. Mr. Ogle thanked Marget Martin for her thirth-one years of service. He congratulated the Finance Department and stated they were top notch. He thanked the administration for the North Road and the ground water study information they had provided. He thanked President Bagley with his recommendations for the next budget cycle as he thought it was right on mark.

Assembly Member McClure appreciated Mr. Gilman's comments regarding students participating in their school's music programs. She wished everyone a happy Thanksgiving and encouraged everyone to invite those who may be alone this holiday.

President Bagley congratulated the Finance Department for their great job with the audit. He thanked the Clerk's Office for the training work session with the new software and their efforts with the remodeling. He stated he would be absent for the next meeting, so happy Thanksgiving, Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.
