Please save the taxpayers money, and assembly members and staff time, and let the Mayors veto stand. The ACLU is a nationwide group of lawyers and activists who probably know what is constitutional and what is not. Requiring a 5 step religious test of speakers discriminates against those who do not pass the test. Say the Pledge of Allegiance and get on with the meeting. These meetings are long enough without a religious sermon.

I am in support of this amendment because it is less offensive than the previous resolution. I would prefer that the borough stop the invocations, period. Please keep religion and prayer out of my government meetings.

Respectfully,
