Dear Assembly President Cooper:

City of Homer

The Prince William Sound Regional Citizens' Advisory Council (PWSRCAC) is writing to advise you that Mako Haggerty's term on our Board of Directors expires at the upcoming May 4-5, 2017, annual meeting in Valdez.

City of Kodiak

City of Seldovia

The dedicated seat for the Kenai Peninsula Borough Assembly is its opportunity to influence decisions having profound implications for oil transportation safety in Alaska, and for the state's oil spill prevention and response capabilities. We greatly value your past participation.

City of Seward

Kenai Peninsula Borough Assembly would best be served by a representative who:

City of Valdez

- Understands her/his community, its needs, concerns and perspectives;
- Has at least a rudimentary familiarity with oil transportation issues;
- Has a home and work schedule flexible enough to allow participation and travel;
- Is committed to our mission of promoting environmentally safe operation of the Alyeska terminal and associated tankers; and
- Seeks opportunities to foster cooperative and constructive relationships between citizens, industry and regulatory agencies.

A PWSRCAC director can expect to devote an average of 15 hours a month on PWSRCAC business. The full Board conducts three 2-day meetings in January, May, and September. In addition, annual budget and planning meetings are held, as well as special meetings and opportunities to participate in committees or work groups. PWSRCAC staff provides support to board members whenever possible.

Please notify us in writing, no later than March 28, 2017, of your selected individual for the Kenai Peninsula Borough Assembly's next two-year term on the PWSRCAC board. Ideally, this individual will then be expected to attend our May 4-5, 2017, meeting in Valdez for confirmation and participation. If Mako Haggerty will continue to be your representative, we ask that you still notify PWSRCAC in writing.
