ASSEMBLY COMMENTS

Assembly Member Elam thanked everyone for a good meeting. He thanked Ms. Ecklund for bringing forward Resolution 2024-014 but stated was not able to support it. Mr. Elam wished everyone a good evening.

Assembly Member Tunseth stated the historical society scholarship application period was open until April 15, 2024 and encouraged students to apply. He reminded everyone to attend the job fair in the old Kenai Mall on April 6, 2024. Mr. Tunseth congratulated the Kenai High School Cheerleading squad who won the state championship for the fourth year in a row. He thanked the public for their comments regarding spruce bark beetle trees and power outages, as it has been a huge issue. He stated he also learned that Homer Electric Association has a program for the removal of trees that were not in the right of way and wished that was promoted more.

Assembly Member Cooper stated there was value to attending the meeting in person. She stated she appreciated the presentations and the job the Resilience and Security Advisory Commission was doing. Ms. Cooper reminded everyone of the Ninilchik Fair Fundraiser on April 6, 2024.

Assembly Member Tupper apologized for not supporting Resolution 2024-014 but stated he felt the administration should have been more involved in the process of submitting this legislation to the assembly for consideration.

Assembly Member Ecklund stated the Resilience and Security Advisory Commission presented their heat pump concept in a memo to Planning, the Mayor, the Clerk, and maybe the Assembly, in November 2023 and since there was no further communication on it, the Resolution was brought forward. Ms. Ecklund stated she would await further instructions on how to bring these items forward.

Vice President Cox discussed the concept of having student council presentation period on the assembly agenda. He requested any feedback on this matter be sent through the Clerk. With the President's consent, Mr. Cox asked the Clerk to give a brief summary of the Voter Turnout Working Group report. Clerk Turner provided a brief summary of the working group's report and listed both the prioritized items and the discussion items that were not listed on the prioritized list.

Assembly President stated he received a lot of emails regarding the assessment process and explained how the borough had to adhere to state law. He stated the Kenai Peninsula Borough's senior exemption was the highest exemption in the State of Alaska.
