

Kenai Peninsula Borough
Alaska
Proclamation

WHEREAS, each day thousands of Americans dial 9-1-1 for emergencies that require law enforcement, fire or emergency medical services; and

WHEREAS, when an emergency occurs, the prompt response of law enforcement, firefighters, and paramedics is critical to the protection of life and the preservation of property; and

WHEREAS, Public Safety Telecommunicators are the crucial link between our law enforcement officers, firefighters and paramedics, by monitoring their activities by radio, providing them information and ensuring their safety; and

WHEREAS, our citizens throughout the Kenai Peninsula Borough depend on Public Safety Telecommunicators to answer calls 24 hours a day, 365 days a year with professionalism, compassion and understanding; and

WHEREAS, Public Safety Telecommunicators have contributed substantially to the apprehension of criminals, suppression of fires and treatment of patients; and

WHEREAS, Public Safety Telecommunicators are a vital link between citizens and victims in our communities, and are the first and most critical contact our citizens have with emergency services; and

WHEREAS, with commitment and diligence, these Public Safety Telecommunicators are invaluable in emergency situations, and each one of them deserves our heartfelt appreciation.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Mike Navarre, Mayor of the Kenai Peninsula Borough, do hereby proclaim the week of April 9-15, 2017 as:

Public Safety Telecommunicators Week

and encourage the citizens of the Kenai Peninsula Borough to honor those men and women whose professionalism, hard work and dedication keep our communities safe.

Mike Navarre,
Kenai Peninsula Borough
Mayor
