How long have you lived in the area served by this Advisory Planning Commission? 20 years	What knowledge, experience, or expertise will you bring to this board? I want to be clear that I have no professional background in planning or development, but I care deeply about our community and how changes affect the people who live here.  I hope the board considers the voices of everyday residents like myself who may not have technical expertise but are directly impacted by these decisions. I appreciate your time and service to our community.
