2019-11 Repealing Voter Approval!

How dare you guys try to circumvent the law and take away our voter voice to increase taxes. You will be committing political suicide by doing this to raise taxes. CUT CUT CUT spending. Quit spending other people's money to suit your fancy.

Support

I support an increase in the tax cap and the 12% bed tax cap and the proposed allocation of these funds towards education and public services. However, if the decision to move forward without a vote to hear the voice of the people, I propose there still be opportunities for public comments and those involved in the decisions heed the opinions of the people they represent.
