4. The Appellant presented sufficient evidence to shift the burden of proof:

Yes

No

5. Additional findings specific to evidence presented in this appeal:

- The appellant shifted the burden of proof in this case based on a showing that the restricted uses caused by the unique zoning were not adequately considered
- The appellant also demonstrated that the view and waterfront were valued the same on restricted use parcels as on regular commercial properties;
- The assessor's model lacked comparables in the same market area and of comparable size;
- The assessor's office failed to shift the burden back – the assessor's office failed to adequately address the view and waterfront adjustment;
- There are regions of the State of Alaska with similar waterfront uses and potentially similar zoning and land uses (i.e., Kodiak, Ketchikan, Valdez) that should have been looked at;
- The final assessed figure arrived at was based upon the oral testimony by the appellant who compared his property to the five (5) other similar properties.

D. CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The legal conclusions upon which the BOE relied to reach its decision were:

1. The BOE reviewed evidence submitted and determined that, as a matter of law, the assessment was an:

☒ Excessive valuation.
☐ Improper valuation.
☐ Under valuation.
☐ None of the above.

2. The BOE concluded as a

3. matter of law that:

- a. ☐ The valuation by the Assessor is not in error, the Appellant has failed to meet its burden of proof and the Assessor's 2021 total assessed value of $_____ is upheld.
b. ☒ The valuation by the Assessor is in error, and the Appellant has met its burden of proof and submitted sufficient evidence to prove that the correct assessment is a total value of $4,668,000.
